List of Projects to be Sent to State Commission Is Discussed

Post-war planning occupied the attention of the Antioch village board at its meeting Tuesday evening. A number of projects which would be suitable for inclusion in a postwar program of improvement and construction of primary and secondary sewers; curbs and gutter on Spafford street; repair of the Orchard street storm sewer; the purchase of a plot of ground between Harden and Lake streets, to Route 173 and down. The connection of dead-end water mains on Park avenue and Ida avenue; construction of a new city hall and fire station; purchase of an additional fire truck; installation of a "white way" lighting system in the business district, and the grading and improvement of Williams street were others discussed.

A special session of the village board is to be called to continue work on outlining the post-war program, it

SNAP your idle electric appliances for War Stamps

What about it, neighbor...is there an old iron, vacuum cleaner, or washer stuck away in your attic or basement? If so, then dig it out! For here's your opportunity to get your "money's worth" from it-and help your neighbors, too.

Since electric appliance manufacturers have "gone to war" many folks in your own neighborhood are without these work-saving appliances. And you can help these families while obtaining more War Stamps for yourself-by joining in this patriotic Swap Plan!

Simply do this: Gather up all your idle electric appliances, regardless of their age or working condition-and take them to the nearest Electrical Dealer participating in this plan. If they are too large to carry, phone him. He will pay you for the appliances in U. S. War Stamps.

So, let's all pitch in . . . for our country, our neighbors, and ourselves! Search your entire house for any appliances you are not using! Then rush them to your Electrical Dealer who is waiting to swap War Stamps for idle electric appliances!

Get in the Swing of the SWAP Plan today!

Search the attic. Perhaps there's an outof-date vacuum cleaner, broken tosster or hand iron you have no use for.

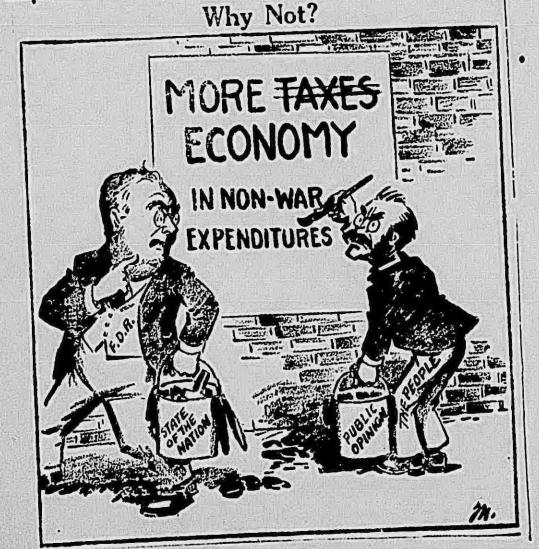

Scour the basement. Downstairs, where you've forgotten all about them, maybe there's an old washer, roaster, electric clock or percolator.

Scanthe cupboards: On forgotten shelves in various cupboards, per-haps you'll find an extra appliance you put away when you received that new one as a gift.

CHAPTER I

The grizzled old Flying Fortress stood on the runway of an American airfield, presently to depart for another continent and another war zone. Those scratches on her running gear were made by sand grains of Wake Island when she was on her to the Far East before the war. That little dent on her wing was made by a spent-bomb fragment the day the war began, when the Japanese destroyed all but a very few of our Far Eastern Air Force on Clark Field in the Philippines. She was one of those few. The battle paint on her wings was later blistered by the sun in the high skies over Java, and still later nicked by sandstorms over the Australian des-

Of the very few to escape Clark Field, she is the only one to come home, and now, her guns removed, she is an old war horse turned out to pasture, the transport plane of a three-star general of the American Air Force:

The pilot is standing. He is what the Japs were doing. Frank Kurtz, who has been three times a member of the championhigh diver, who a year ago was a Group, and who now holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Silver Star, and is a lieutenant colonel at thirty-one.

The others are Margo, his pretty, haired navigator; Master Sergeant Charlie Reeves, his bombardier; Master Sergeant Rowland Boone, his gunner; and Master Sergeant "Red" Varner, the merriest embalmer in the Air Corps, who a few years ago ran a comfortable little undertaking parlor out on the Coast.

"Red" is now crew chief of the Swoose, and lords it over the ground crews who swarm over her to check her engines when she hits the ground. He brings hot coffee and sandwiches to her pilot and passengers when she is aloft, and it was that belongs to the Government with his duty in Java and Australia to steal anything from a carburetor to ful new Flying Fortress that belongs a roasting chicken necessary to keep the General comfortable and the Swoose in the air. Since this was written, all the master sergeants of the Swoose crew have been commissioned.

All I can remember is how Old 99 looked and, a little later, walking over the field, slowly, toward her; afraid to come too close, too fast. "Everything there, only something else, too. And I couldn't make out what it was. Yet I must have guessed. Because I began to feel sick at my heart and my stomach when I saw that curious, half-burned bundle of something lying there under the crumpled wing, and as I got closer I couldn't even deny to myself what it was. One of my crew. Lying under there. And right beside him another. "So maybe for me it begins when I got to where Tax was lying, and sat down by him to talk it over, lifting his curly head with one hand and patting his hairy back with the other. It was still soft and warm. It wasn't a body yet. It was Tex himself at the end of that sprawling line. I told him I didn't know why this had happened any more than he did. But they could trust me to find out, so it would never happen again. But regardless of that, he must understand this wasn't the end.

CHAPTER II

"We weren't licked; it was only the beginning, and from now on we would get to work, all of us, and win. I told him that whatever plane they gave me later, Old 99 would be flyng right in the formation, and on night missions I would always see Old 99's wing lights beside me, and know that she was protecting me with her crossfire, knocking down Zeros that tried to climb onto my tail. Yes, maybe that's where the story begins.

"The 19th Bombardment Group consisted of thirty-five beautiful shiny new Flying Fortresses, of which Old 99 was one-we had picked her up at the Boeing factory just before she came off the line. Of the Fortress series, they were D models—then the latest and finest in the business. About a dozen of our thirty-five were down at Del Monte Field on the southern island of Mindanao. The rest were at the main bomber base, Clark Field, about forty-five miles from Manila, which was the headquarters of General MacArthur, the Commander in Chief. Our immediate Air Corps commander, General Brereton, was constantly visiting us at Clark.

"On November 27 General Brereton put us on the alert. He had received the same State Department warning they got at Pearl Harborthat war might be days or maybe hours away. Within the limit of what we had, the Air Force was ready for it. The General was making all the reconnaissance he could, and had picked his targets in Formosa, from where we knew the blow would come. Our machine guns were in place and loaded.

"As fast as our facilities would permit, our shiny aluminum Queens were getting their coat of dull war paint, and I was notified that Old 99 was scheduled to get her camouflage on December eighth.

"That's a date we who were in the Philippines will never forget. With you it's December seventh, but don't be confused, for it's really the same day, only because the Philippines are on the other side of the international date line, we give it a different number.

"The Japanese struck at Pearl Harbor at exactly 7:35 o'clock in the morning Honolulu time. At that same instant it was 4:35 o'clock in the morning of December eighth in the Philippines-a few hours before dawn reached us. I was asleep in the nipa shack which was the officers' quarters on Clark Field.

"I got up at seven as usual and, stumbling in sleepily to shave, enapped on my portable as I always did to get the early morning news By the way, one of the first things the Japs did when they entered the town two weeks later was to shoot the poor devil. In even more rapidfire style than usual he told us the big news-that the Japs had hit Hawaii.

"The other guys gathered around, and it stunned us all. There weren't too many details, but it sounded like. they'd split the place wide-open. Precious days had been slipping by, now it was precious hours sliding away, but I don't pretend that I realized this then. I only knew something was likely to happen, but in the meantime I rushed over to mess on my bike and sat down by Bill Cocke, our brilliant young engineer officer, because I wanted his reaction to what little facts the radio had told us.

"Sure enough, Bill had it figured The range was too great from any Jap island to Hawaii; they must have been carrier-based-carriers which had slipped by our patrols the night before, made the last leg of their trip at top speed in the night, and loosed their planes just before dawn. Lucky it wasn't us, instead.

"We gulped breakfast, and then all the pilots rushed over to operations meeting in the squadron's operations tent, where Major Don Gibbs went over the situation with us. I can see him now, trim, alert, boyish-looking for his rank and years-if he'd lived out the war he would surely be a brigadier general by now. He was as shrewd as he was modest. It was his second tour of duty out East, and he knew the lay of the land.

"'Well, gentlemen, this is it,' he said. Then he stepped over to the open flap and faced us. 'If they've hit Hawaii they can't miss hitting us. I can't tell you when it will come, but it will come. However, I can tell you where it will come from.' Here he raised the canvas flap with one hand and pointed up and to the north. 'It will be from right over that hill,' he said.

"We looked at the hill, tree-clad. velvety, beautiful in the sunrise. Beyond it was Iba Field. Still farther was the China Sea and then came Formosa, the black forbidden hunk of something I had looked down on the week before.

"As we left, Gibbs said: 'You're on the stand-by. Orders will be coming through fast all morning.' Then I went back to Old 99, She was one of the few which hadn't been loaded with bombs, as she had been scheduled for camouflaging that morning. Only the orders that now came seemed conflicting as those final hours slipped away.

"First came one countermanding the camouflaging. Seemed something was afoot, and they couldn't wait for it. Instead we were to load bombs, so we taxied over toward the ammunition dump. Then Bill Cocke, who was to be running back and forth all morning with conflicting orders, came screaming down the field. Take her back to the hangar; they want the camou-flaging finished by all means!'

"Presently came another order for me and two other planes of this 30th Squadron to unload our bombs and insert cameras. Nothing more than that, but it was clear they were sance over Formosa.

"I didn't then know that our little field only reflected what was going on at Manila Headquarters, where our Air Force General Brereton had been up long before dawn and was at a big conference all morning. Of course it's very easy to be wise after the event.

WPB Plan Tackling the knotty problem of reconversion of industry from war to peace, the War Production board has formulated a plan under which no one would get a competitive advantage in the resumption of civilian output.

RECONVERSION:

The plan is simple enough, calling for quotas of civilian goods based on a percentage of certain prewar production to be assigned to manufacturers, with such manufacturers work turning over their quotas to from Hebron and Mrs. A. The plan already has been put into operation in the authorized manufacture of two million flatirons, with makers entitled to produce 43 per cent of their 1940 output and to transfer their quotas to others.

PLAY SQUARE...

Display your colors now!

Do you remember that soldier you saw on the bus with his arm in a cast? Do you recall that sailor you saw hobbling down the street on a cane? Have you noticed the list of casualties printed from time to time in this newspaper?

What you are asked to do, compared to the boys who are really in it, is easy. But your job is mighty important, too. Once again you are asked to BUY AT LEAST ONE EXTRA HUNDRED DOLLAR WAR BOND. A Series E War Savings Bond will cost you only $75 and you get back at maturity in ten years $4 for every $3 invested; this is the least you can do. Invest more if you possibly can-$200, $300, $400. Remember, it all comes back with

Welcome
of Victory!

THE "shock troops" of your Government's 4th War Loan Drive—a drive that must raise $14 billion to put the punch behind the punch that may make 1944 the date of doom for the Nazis—will soon call on you to buy your personal quota of Bonds. For, of the $14 billion that must be raised in this Drive, $5.5 billion worth must come from individuals.

• Welcome these American men and women—5 million of them—who are not only buying their share of Bonds but are giving their time to call on you, personally.

Every office, every plant, every home, every individual in America has a quota to meet. Your personal quota is at least one extra $100 Bond. That's above your regular Bond buying.

If possible, buy your extra Bonds during this drive at the plant or office where you work. A volunteer Bond worker will sell you there. Otherwise, welcome him to your home when he calls. Or find one in the thousands of retail stores all over the United States. They want to find you—you must help see that they do.

If you are unable to make your purchases from a soldier of victory be sure to go to one of these other special War Bond stations to buy your extra Bonds:

U. S. POST OFFICES
SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
BROKERAGE AND INVESTMENT FIRMS
MOTION PICTURE THEATRES
CREDIT UNIONS
CERTAIN GOVERNMENT AGENCIES
NUMEROUS CORPORATIONS AND FIRMS FOR THEIR EMPLOYEES
PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS
NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
MISCELLANEOUS BOND BOOTHS
RADIO STATIONS
RETAIL STORES
WE BOUGHT EXTRA WA

Remember your job in this Drive is to buy more than your share of Bonds. That's the only way you can be certain you are still backing the attack. So be ready to meet your War Bond representative with an open check book.

This efficient in your window means you have beyght 4th War Lean securities.

Lets all BACK THE ATTACK!

DARLING'S FERTILIZER

"I am taking my fertilizer

"I used to wait until spring to buy my fertilizer. But, times have changed! Today there is a shortage of labor for handling deliveries; potash and phosphates are in greater demand than available supplies can take care of. Every farmer will want to step up yields again next year. I know, from long experience, that the best way to do this is with DARLING'S SOIL BUILDER'S. I've seen how it increased yields of corn selected year after year for National and State Corn Husking Contests. It's my first choice among fertiliz-
